MRS. MARY GODDARD

Aunt of John Fox, Jr., Famous Novelist, Died at Her Home in Fleming County Yesterday Morning.

Mrs. Mary Goddard, aged 76 years, died at her home near Mt. Carmel, Fleming county, yesterday morning at 4 o'clock after a several weeks' illness of a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Goddard was a native Kentuckian and was highly respected and loved by all who knew her. She was a well read woman and was always willing to converse on the current topics of the day, as well as historical subjects. She was well versed in the early traditions of the state and could entertain one for hours with her interesting stories.

Deceased is survived by three children—Mr. John Will Goddard of Ohio, Mr. Andrew Goddard of Fleming county, and Mrs. Kate McCarthey, with whom she made her home. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Sue Fox, of Big Stone Gap, Va., who is the mother of John Fox, Jr., the famous novelist.

The funeral services will be held from the Mt. Carmel Christian Church Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment in the Mt. Carmel cemetery.

GRANTED MARRIAGE LICENSE

MINISTERS POURING IN

For the Annual Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church—Bishop Anderson Arrived Last Night—Two Splendid Speakers at Preliminary Service Last Night.

By the time this is read the Conference will be in full swing. Since yesterday at noon the visiting ministers have just poured in. Those having in charge the reception and assignment of ministers to homes for entertainment worked overtime. Yet so well arranged was everything that all were taken care of all right. The following is a list of those already here and assigned to homes:

District Superintendents, E. R. Overley, W. H. Davenport and W. W. Shepherd, respectively of the Covington, Ashland and Louisville Districts. E. L. Shepherd, Covington. Isaiah Cline, Augusta. J. M. Lital, Covington. A. F. Felt, Covington. G. N. Jolly, Ludlow. William Jont Vancove. W. F. Gregory, Barbourville. E. N. Early, Middlesboro. L. O. Carder, Olive Hill. J. O. Carder, Newport. J. R. Howes, Mt. Olivet. W. M. Kelly, Wilton. G. W. Thomas, Winchester. T. B. Stratton, Dayton. J. W. Zimmerman, Dayton. J. J. Seitz, Lexington. T. Kelly, Somerset. E. P. Hall, Latonia. R. T. Moore, Dayton, Ohio. R. W. Nicely, Volga. T. Howard Jones, Ashland. S. F. Kelly, Cold Springs. Thomas Grenfell, Catlettsburg. A. C. Bostwick, Louisa. J. G. Dover, Bellevue. A. W. Insko, Salsersville. Howard Trent, Lexington. Ora G. Sparks, Argillite. J. D. Walsh, D. D. Chattanooga, Tenn.

A. W. Rowe, Pikeville. W. H. Howes, Danleton. W. W. Todd. J. H. Howes, Wallingford. W. H. Morris, Ashland. J. N. Eason, D. D., Louisville. W. G. Bradford, Augusta. E. B. Hill, Bethel Ridge. S. M. Carrier, Grahamton. Amos Boring, London. L. R. Godey, Kings Mountain. W. A. Bugbee, Middlesboro. O. E. Miller, Newton, Ohio. L. F. Payne, Riley. E. F. Burnside, Whitley City. Prince Perkins, Whitley City. Charles Mitchell, Science Hill. V. T. Willis, Somerset. Harry Simms, Greenville. Kellogg Smith, Kingswood. G. A. Parsons, Bowling Green. T. B. Roberts, Lexington. J. R. Copplin, Layman, Covington.

Two of the large interests of the church were represented in the service of last evening. The first, Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, by Rev. Robt. Welles Keeler of Chicago, who gave a splendid address on the work of this society. He was followed by Rev. J. T. B. Smith of Chicago, who spoke in the interests of Conference Claimants. Dr. Smith is a Scotchman and has much of the native wit of the Scot. His address was the best along the line pensioning the old and worn out preachers that has ever been given before this conference.

Fortunate indeed were those who had the privilege of hearing him. He will address the Conference again today. Social attention is called to the services for tonight. The speakers are noted as being among the best speakers in the church. Those who attend will be well repaid for coming.

Bishop Anderson arrived on a late train last night and is being entertained by the Central Hotel. The old church is nicely fixed up for the conference. The pulpit has been elegantly furnished by the McIlvain, Knox and Diener Co. Back of the pulpit Old Glory is given a prominent place, the whole platform being tastefully decorated with the national colors.

The Sunday School room has been transformed for the time being into a beautiful dining room in which a noon lunch will be served each day to the over one hundred delegates. In recent years this custom is followed wherever it is convenient to do so. It serves a double purpose, giving the housekeepers who entertain ministers an opportunity to attend the day sessions of the Conference without the worry of dinner, and the ministers the chance to sit at one big table together once a day. Then it serves to expedite the business of the Conference for it keeps the preachers all together, whereas if they went to the homes to dinner in a town stretched out as long as Maysville it would take two hours to make it. In all the arrangements are good and everyone is anticipating a successful Conference and many pleasant social times also.

Mr. John Venn, representing the Methodist Book Concern, came in Monday night from Cincinnati and he now has a splendid display of books and Sunday School periodicals that should prove to be a great attraction at the Conference. The publications of the Methodist Book Concern, both books and Sunday School periodicals, took first prize at the World's Fair in San Francisco several years ago. This will be of interest to those who visit this display.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Open on September 4—Superintendent Caplinger Urges That None of the Older Boys and Girls Drop Out.

The city schools of Maysville will open Tuesday morning, September 4. We contemplate a large enrollment and trust that all of our citizenry will put forth unusual effort to have the older pupils in school this year.

Dr. P. P. Claxton, U. S. Commissioner of Education, has been sending out bulletins and letters to the superintendents of the cities urging that the various agencies of the cities render all the help possible to the end that the school attendance may be kept up to a high standard during the period of the war. The Federal Government feels very strongly that national interest can be served best by keeping colleges and high schools, the latter especially, filled with students. Each year the war continues will increase the need of educated citizens. We, therefore, urge the churches, Parent-Teacher Association and other organizations that they assist in creating a strong sentiment in favor of attendance this coming school year.

Because of the high prices of the various commodities, as well as the distractions due to war conditions, we feel that some people will decide to keep their older sons out of the high school and for that reason we are asking for this assistance. One good way for parents to be patriotic is to see that their sons enter school.

PRICE NOT FIXED ON WHEAT

Committee Headed by Dr. Garfield Adjourns After Several Votes Had Been Taken Without Result—Considerable Difference of Opinion as to Fair Price Said to Exist.

Washington, August 28.—The committee headed by Dr. H. A. Garfield, named by President Wilson to recommend the price for the 1917 wheat crop failed to reach an agreement tonight, and will continue deliberations tomorrow. It had been announced that a price would be fixed at tonight's meeting.

Members of the committee declined to discuss the situation but it is understood several votes were taken. It had been decided earlier that a three-fourths vote would determine the price.

The fact that a conclusion was not reached was taken to mean that considerable differences of opinion had developed as to what is a fair valuation of the crop.

The basic price fixed will be for number one northern wheat or its equivalent. Prices for other grades and classes will be left to the food administration which will work out a scale within the next few days. Representatives of grain producing interests on the committee have contended for a high price because of the short crop, arguing that since congress has fixed an arbitrary price of $2 for next year's yield, with every prospect of increased acreage, this year's crop is worth a much higher figure.

It is generally predicted the price will be between $2 and $2.50.

PEACE PROPOSAL REJECTED
Folly To Accept Peace Until Goal is Gained, Wilson Tells Pontif.
Washington, August 28.—President Wilson has rejected the Pope's peace proposals.
In a note dispatched last night and made public here tonight, the President says that while every heart not blinded and hardened by the terrible war must be touched by the moving appeal of His Holiness, it would be folly to take the path of peace he points out if it does not in fact lead to the goal he proposes.
To deal with such a power as the present rulers of Germany upon Pope Benedict's plan, declares the President, would involve a recuperation of the strength and renewal of the world domination of that power, now balked but not defeated after sweeping a continent with the blood of innocent women and children and the helpless poor as well as soldiers.
Permanent peace must be based upon the faith of all the peoples and upon justice and fairness and the common rights of mankind, he adds, and "we can not take the word of the present rulers of Germany as a guarantee of anything that is to endure, unless explicitly supported by such conclusive evidence of the will and purpose of the German people themselves as the other peoples of the world would be justified in accepting."

WANTED
FIFTY MASON COUNTY FARMER BOYS, BETWEEN THE AGES OF 10 AND 18 YEARS TO JOIN OUR MASON COUNTY HEIFER CLUB
Believing that the future progress and prosperity of Mason County depends upon the continuing development of its Agricultural interests and the business efficiency of our future Farmers, with the hope of being able to aid in those directions, we have decided to organize a Heifer Club for the Farmer Boys of Mason County.
ABOUT THE FIRST OF SEPTEMBER, 1917, we are going to purchase Fifty Grade Shorthorn Heifers, about eight months old and weighing about 600 pounds, which we will distribute among the first fifty Mason County Farmer Boys, between the ages of 10 and 18 years, that apply for and agree to care for same and that can execute a bankable note covering the cost of the Heifer; which note shall be payable in the fall of 1918.
The Heifers will be bought by expert cattlemen connected with the Extension Service of the State College of Agriculture and be distributed among the boys by lot. Each boy will be given the same chance to make good, and required to become a member of the Mason County Boys' Agricultural Club and to care for the Heifer under the directions of the County Agent; to have the Heifer bred to a pure bred Shorthorn Bull, this fall, and to have her and her offspring ready for public exhibition and sale in the fall of 1918.
You will not be expected to put up a cent of money now; but, you must properly care for the Heifer and pay for it later and all the increase and profit will be yours.
About $100 will be given away in prizes to the boys getting the best results, with their Heifers, at the exhibition to be held in the fall of 1918.
For full particulars call at Bank or see Mr. E. F. Boyd, Jr., County Agent, at once, as we want to close entries to the club by September 1st.
We are anxious to help Boys that are willing to work and learn.

AN UNWELCOME NICKNAME

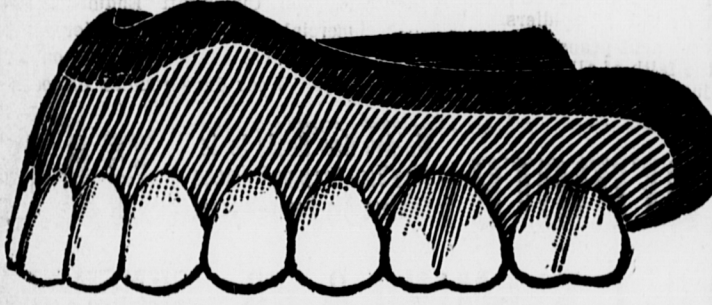

"Sammy" is as good a nickname as "Tommy" for a soldier and is more pointed, our khaki-clad youth being the nephews, if we can not say the sons, of Uncle Sam. The objections that "Sammy" is provincial English for a witless "sucker," and that it is West Point slang for molasses or "slow," are unimportant. When the French witnessed the first unloading of American troops by order of Uncle Sam it was natural for them to call out "Sammees" in their enthusiasm and they meant to be both applauding and affectionate. It was, in fact, a spontaneous tribute and should be regarded as such. But it is said that our soldiers do not like the nickname, that it is not only unwelcome but resented, being considered—according to quoted American officers—as "inapt, undignified and irritating."

If such distaste is general, it is manifest that "Sammy" won't do and must be abolished. The French wish only to please and will stop it as soon as they are generally informed. That American newspaper correspondents in Europe and headline writers in this country can be as easily persuaded is not so certain, the term being serviceable because of its brevity. Substitutes are being proposed and it is said that "Johnny Yank," a combination of "Johnny Reb" and "Yank" is the only one to find favor in the American camp in France. But it is cumbersome as well as mechanical, reminding us that nicknames are accidental and can not be deliberately manufactured. Until a suitable one "happens" the proper and quite sufficient terms, American and Americans, will have to serve.

"Every student an athlete" is excellent in theory, especially in war time, but the Collegiate Athletic Association's proposed reform will encounter some difficulty in practice. Hitherto 99 per cent. of college students have sat still and cheered while a relative handful of strong young men have been made stronger by sporting contests.

TESTIMONIALS FOR MEDICINES

Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company Publishes Only Genuine Ones.

The testimonials published by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company come unsolicited. Before they are used the Company takes great care to inform itself about the writer. Never knowingly, has it published an untruthful letter, never is a letter published without written consent signed by the writer.

The reason that thousands of women from all parts of the country write such grateful letters is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives, once burdened with pain and illness.

It has relieved women from some of the worst forms of female ills, from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, nervousness, weakness, stomach troubles and from the blues.

It is impossible for any woman who is well and who has never suffered to realize how these poor, suffering women feel when restored to health; and their desire to help other women who are suffering as they did.

HOME-READING COURSE FOR CITIZEN-SOLDIERS

(Issued by the War Department and all rights to reprint reserved.)

This course of thirty daily lessons is offered to the men selected for service in the National Army, as a practical help in getting started in the right way. It is informal in tone and does not attempt to give binding rules and directions. These are contained in the various manuals and regulations of the United States Army, to which this course is merely introductory.

LESSON NO. 15. FIGHTING ARMS OF THE SERVICE.

(Preceding Lessons: 1. Your Post of Honor. 2. Making Good as a Soldier. 3. Nine Qualities of a Soldier. 4. Getting Ready for Camp. 5. First Days in Camp. 6. Cleanliness in Camp. 7. Your Health. 8. Marching and Care of Feet. 9. Your Equipment and Arms. 10. Recreation in Camp. 11. Playing the Game. 12. Team Work in the Army. 13. Grouping Men into Teams. 14. The Team Leaders.)

We have spoken so far as if all soldiers were infantrymen; that is, as if all fought on foot armed with rifle and bayonet. As we all know an army is much more complex. There are two other "fighting arms" of the service, the Cavalry and the Artillery. These three branches of the Army are sometimes called the "line"—a term which comes down to us from the day when soldiers in battle were always drawn up in line. The other branches to be described later, are included under the general term "staff." However the Engineer Corps and the Signal Corps are in part troops of the line, though they are herein described for convenience under the heading of "Staff branches of the service."

The Infantry is the backbone of the Army. "It is the Infantry soldier who must bear the great stress of battle, and war is more dependent for success upon his individual action than upon any other factor." By far the largest number of men in the National Army will go into the Infantry branch of the service. In the present war the importance of Infantry is even greater than in previous wars.

The Value of Infantry
It is not enough for Infantry to know how to defend itself. It must know also how to attack. It is not enough that it should be able to move forward in masses. The Infantry soldier must also have the intelligent self-reliance that will enable him to act as an individual; always, of course, within the limits of military discipline.

The chances for initiative in present day warfare can best be illustrated by re-counting the story of Michael O'Leary, a lance corporal of the Irish Guards, in the British Army. On February 1, 1915, the Guards were ordered to retake a trench which had been temporarily lost to the Germans. O'Leary was off duty and need not have joined in the attack at all. But that did not stop him for a moment from using his courage and his brains to help his regiment win.

Jumping out of the trench he ran at full speed to a railroad cut on the right of the first German line where he was partly under cover from the enemy's fire. With five shots in succession he killed or disabled five men before his comrades reached the trench. Not satisfied with this achievement he ran ahead until he came up from the railroad cut beside the second German line. Here was a machine gun. The officer in command had just pointed the gun at the Irish Guards in the first trench and had his finger on the firing button when he was dropped by a well-aimed bullet from O'Leary's rifle. He shot two other Germans who were attempting to fire the machine gun, whereupon the remainder of the squad threw up their hands and surrendered.

Thus it happened that when his company of the Irish Guards reached the second line without the loss of a single man they were amazed to find O'Leary ahead of them in complete possession. He was made a sergeant on the field, and later given a Victoria Cross. After other exhibitions of bravery and initiative, the 25-year-old soldier became Lieut. O'Leary.

The Cavalry
There is always an element of luck in such unusual achievements, but all the luck in the world is useless unless the soldier has developed his intelligence, spirit, and self-reliance during his months of training.

The Cavalry is armed with saber and pistol, as well as rifle. Since the early months of the present war there has been little opportunity to use Cavalry on the western front. For the most part of the Cavalry forces of European armies have been fighting in the trenches as Infantry.

Under these conditions it has been determined to reorganize several of the Cavalry regiments of our Regular Army as Field Artillery. United States Cavalry, as such, is not to be used in Europe at present. Some good judges believe that the Cavalry will again come into its own before the war is ended, but on this question no final opinion can now be given.

The Coast Artillery, which handles the big-caliber guns guarding our chief harbors against naval attacks, is a branch distinct from the Field Artillery, which handles the smaller guns drawn by horses or motors and moved about with the rest of the Army. The present field guns range in size from 3-inch caliber to 4.7 inches. The Field Artillery also handles howitzers, which throw heavy shells high into the air so that they will fall upon the target at a very steep angle.

The chief kinds of artillery ammunition are shrapnel and high explosives. The shrapnel is intended to burst in the face of the enemy and scatter a large number of bullets. The high explosives are used chiefly to blow up enemy trenches.

Increasing Importance of Artillery
The importance of artillery has been very much increased during the present war. It is the most effective of all weapons in preparing the way for attack. In advance of an attack on a large scale there are often several days of continuous artillery duel, during which the big guns of both sides try to locate and put out of action the opposing guns. In fact, on the western front the artillery duel never entirely ceases.

The chief qualities of a good artilleryman are intelligence and tenacity.

He must know his gun so well that he can not only play his own part but, if necessary, can take the place of any of his comrades. He must have the courage that enables him to hold any position assigned to him until the order is given to move.

Similar to the artillery in many respects are the machine-gun troops. Machine guns shoot a steady stream of bullets and have great value against an attack from the front. They may also be readily carried forward by attacking troops and used with great effect against the defenders of a position.

"A skirmish line can not advance by walking or running when hostile machine guns have the correct range and are ready to fire. Machine-gun fire is not especially effective against troops lying on the ground or crouching. When opposed by machine gun, with artillery to destroy them infantry itself must silence them before it can advance. Concealment and patient waiting for critical moments and exceptional opportunities are the special characteristics of the machine-gun service in decisive actions." (Infantry Drill Regulations, pars. 542, 545-546.)

In handling machine guns, just as in handling artillery, intelligence and tenacity are the qualities most needed. There are numberless examples in the present war of courageous self-reliance on the part of individual soldiers in repairing or serving machine guns while under fire, and thus playing a big part in helping to win victories.

SECRET OF SALVARSAN IS FOUND—AMERICAN FORMULA, HOWEVER, MUST GO THROUGH HANDS OF GERMANS, WHO KEEP PRICE UP

Philadelphia, Penn., August 27.—The secret of salvarsan, which its German discoverer sought so closely to guard, at last has been discovered and proved.

After about 200,000 tests the drug manufactured in this city by the dermatological research laboratories, connected with the Polyclinic Hospital, has been accepted by American physicians as equal, if not superior, to the salvarsan made by Ehrlich, in Germany, and now is being used extensively. Not a single case, so far as the physicians in charge of the laboratories know, has been lost.

But, while salvarsan is being manu-

WORK THAT TELLS

Plenty of It Has Been Done Right Here in Maysville.

To thoroughly know the virtues of a medicine you must investigate its work. Doan's Kidney Pills stand this test, and plenty of proof exists right here in Maysville. People who testified years ago to relief from backache, kidney and urinary disorders, now give confirmed testimony—declare the results have lasted. How can any Maysville sufferer longer doubt the evidence?

Henry S. Gallenstein, blacksmith, 124 W. Third St., Maysville, says: "My kidneys were out of order and I had pains through my back. Doan's Kidney Pills put an entire stop to the pains and my kidneys became well." (Statement given January 9, 1912.)

RESULTS THAT REMAIN
OVER FOUR YEARS LATER, or on November 14, 1916, Mr. Gallenstein said: "I haven't had any need of a kidney medicine since I last recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. The benefit they gave me has been permanent." Mr. Gallenstein is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mr. Gallenstein has twice publicly recommended—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60c all stores. factured by an American company and without the aid of German formulas, before being distributed for the treatment of disease in this country it must go through the hands of agents of the German manufacturers, because their patents in this country have not been abrogated. The dermatological research laboratories are willing to sell the drug at prices within the reach of poor people, where the disease it cures is more prevalent, but the Germans insist upon holding the price up.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts through the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75c. GERMANY DECIDES TO PAY ARGENTINE INDEMNITY FOR SINKING SHIP

Buenos Aires, August 28.—The German minister tonight handed the Argentine government the following note:

"The German imperial government desires to maintain cordial relations with Argentina, and, to prove with facts its friendly sentiment, has decided after a new investigation of the Toro case, to indemnify the Argentine government.

"The imperial German government declares at the same time that the freedom of the seas, in which Argentine shipping would share, forms one of the objects of this war. As a consequence of the illegal acts of its enemies the liberty of action of the imperial German government is limited, but it willingly acknowledges the dictates of international law and will endeavor to observe them.

"The naval forces of the German empire have received orders and instructions in agreement with this viewpoint and the imperial German government is convinced that after these declarations no incident will occur to disturb the friendly relations between Germany and Argentina. (Signed)

PESSIMISTIC PICTURE

Of Conditions in Russia Drawn by General Korniloff in Speech Before National Conference—Must Hold Riga or Road to Petrograd Will Be Opened.

Moscow, August 27.—(Delayed)—Speaking before the second general sitting of the national conference which is expected to decide the future of the Russian republic, General Korniloff, commander-in-chief of the army, said that the death penalty, restoration of which he had asked, together with other measures, constitutes only a small part of what was necessary in an army stricken with the terrible evils of disorganization and insubordination.

In the present month, General Korniloff, said, soldiers had killed four regimental commanders and other officers and ceased these outrages only when they were threatened with being shot. Quite recently one of the regiments of Siberian Rifles, which had fought so splendidly at the beginning of the revolution, abandoned its positions on the Riga front. Nothing except an order to exterminate the entire regiment availed to cause it to return to its positions.

"Thus we are implacably fighting anarchy in the army," the commander continued. "Undoubtedly it finally will be repressed, but the danger of fresh debacles is weighting constantly on the country.

"The situation on the front is bad. We have lost the whole of Galicia, the whole of Bukovina and all the fruits of our recent victories. At several points the enemy has crossed our frontier and is threatening our fertile southern provinces. He is endeavoring to destroy the Rumanian army and is knocking at the gates of Riga. If our army does not hold the shore of the Gulf of Riga the road to Petrograd will be opened wide.

"The old regime bequeathed to Russia an army which, despite all the defects in its organization, nevertheless was animated by a fighting spirit and was ready for sacrifices. The whole series of measures taken by those who are completely foreign to the spirit and needs of the army has transformed it into collection of individual groups which have lost all sense of duty and only tremble for their own personal safety.

"If Russia wishes to be saved the army must be regenerated at any cost. We must immediately take measures such as I have referred to, which have been approved in their entirety by the acting minister of war."

General Korniloff then outlined the most important of these measures, in addition to restoration of the death penalty, which are: First, restoration of discipline in the army by the strengthening of the authority of officers; second, improvement of the financial position of officers, who have been in a very difficult position in the recent military operations; third, restriction of the functions of regimental committees, which, although managing economic affairs of the regiments, must not be permitted to have any part in decisions regarding military operations or the appointment of leaders.

Gen. Korniloff and Premier Kerensky were loudly cheered by the delegates. They cheered for Russia, the revolutionary government and the army.

Vladimir Nabokoff, a prominent Social Democrat, speaking in the name of the first Duma, declared the country aimed at the establishment of a strong and independent power, uninfluenced by political parties; a power which, based on democratic principles, would establish obedience to the law, civil liberty and personal security. The speaker emphasized the absolute necessity of the independence of the high command of the army from every private influence.

M. Nabokoff said the members of the first Duma repudiated with indignation all thoughts of a separate peace and that if they were to have peace they did not desire it to be the result of German victory, but the consequence of the triumph of Russia and her allies. M. Alexinsky made a similar declaration on behalf of the second Duma.

NEW OUTRAGE ON BELGIUM

SUFFICIENT CLOTHING

Is Lacking For First Draft Army, Secretary Baker Declares.

Washington, August 28.—Secretary of War Baker today admitted there is not sufficient clothing or equipment for the draft army. Neither will all the cantonments be completed in time but work is being rushed and there will be accommodations sufficient for the first increment to be ordered out. Today the first model of the re-embarked Enfield rifle reached the War Department. The various factories where Enfields are being turned out will go to work to supply the new type of rifle—an English Enfield so chambered as to take American Springfield ammunition—in earnest. Secretary Baker said today that discarded army rifles loaned to military academies and other schools would be called in.

The camp at Louisville practically is ready; the cantonment at Admiral, Md., also will be ready in time. The entire movement of guardsmen to Southern training camps and mobilization points will be completed by September 10.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Second M. E. Church, South, will meet at the church tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock sharp.

MCADOO QUESTIONED REGARDING DETAIL OF ALLIED LOANS

Washington, August 28.—Threats of some republican members of the house to oppose further appropriations for allied loans unless they were enlightened regarding details of the transfer of monies already authorized, caused the committee to question Secretary McAdoo on this point today for more than three hours behind closed committee room doors.

The leaders then emerged smiling and expressed satisfaction with the Secretary's frankness, though still contending that greater assurance of money being spent in the United States should be required.

Efforts were being made today by some of the committeemen to induce Democratic Leader Kitchin to call others before the committee to testify regarding the transfer of the monies. It is considered probable, however, that this would not be done, as it might prevent passage of the new bond issue bill this week.
